Jonathan "Jack" Korte is an associate attorney at Ahdoot Wolfson, whose practice has focused on complex civil litigation and class action work, particularly in matters involving securities and banking law.

Before joining the firm, Mr. Korte gained experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants in litigation and regulatory matters involving corporate misconduct. Mr. Korte has extensive experience in both state and federal court, including cases against the nation's largest financial institutions.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Korte worked as an anti-money laundering analyst for a major Latin American bank and later as an investigator with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), where he investigated suspicious securities trading activity and potential violations of federal securities laws.

Mr. Korte earned his J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law and graduated summa cum laude from Miami University in Ohio with a degree in Spanish & Latin American Studies.
