Kathryn Cabrera is a paralegal at Ahdoot & Wolfson, PC with more than a decade of experience assisting plaintiffs in complex litigation, including antitrust, civil rights, consumer, ERISA, privacy, and securities class actions and shareholder rights litigation. Familiar with all stages of litigation, Ms. Cabrera has worked on cases before state and federal trial courts, appellate courts, and supreme courts.

In addition to her class action work, Ms. Cabrera is well versed in every aspect of the successful representation of clients in catastrophic personal injury cases. Ms. Cabrera has managed complex personal injury cases that were coordinated before the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation and the California Judicial Council, which encompassed providing bellwether trial support.

At Ahdoot & Wolfson, PC, Ms. Cabrera utilizes her years of experience to ensure the highest quality representation for clients.
