

Shary Alipour

Financial Controller

and enrolled agent licensed by the IRS, Shary has worked as a financial controller in the United States since 2008. Prior to emigrating to the United States, she worked as a financial controller for various companies in her native Iran.

In Iran, Shary received her Bachelor's Degree in Accounting from Karaj University and a Master of Commerce from Azad University. More recently, she received her Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Texas at Arlington. Shary is a financial controller at Ahdoot Wolfson.